A Q&A with Veolia North America Executives Bill DiCroce and Bob Cappadona

What does Veolia do?

"Our tagline is 'Resourcing the World'. It's about helping to recycle, reuse, refine, and repurpose resources."
– Bill DiCroce, Veolia North America President and CEO

Has your process changed in recent years?

"As we've gotten into more complex chemistries, it may be a more step-by-step process. You essentially become a chemical re-manufacturer."
– Bob Cappadona, Veolia North America COO
